

T-30 THURSDAY, JUNE 28
2:00 P.M. – 5:15 P.M.Open for Business?*Non-discrimination Best Practices and Legal Advice for Our Business Clients*What You'll Learn:

1. The current state of the law following the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Masterpiece Cakeshop, Ltd. v. Colorado Civil Rights Commission and related Arizona case decisions, including Brush & Nib Studio v. City of Phoenix
2. A comprehensive survey of local municipality non-discrimination ordinances across Arizona. What is the law in your city?
3. A discussion of non-legal business considerations for your business clients when deciding if they are indeed Open for Business to all

Presented by: Arizona LGBT Bar Association Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Council

Chairs: Jessica Hernandez, Mayes Telles PLLC and President, Arizona LGBT Bar Association
Samantha Herd, Herd Legal PLLC and Chairperson, Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Council

Faculty: Eric M. Fraser, Osborn Maledon PA
Stephen Kilar, Staff Attorney, Arizona ACLU
Angela Hughey, Founder, ONE Community
Nancy Marcus, Law and Policy Senior Attorney, Lambda Legal

© All Rights Reserved. The opinions of the faculty expressed in their written materials and oral presentations are not necessarily those of the State Bar of Arizona.

3 CLE CREDIT
HOURS

1 CLE ETHICS
CREDIT HOUR

 STATE BAR
OF ARIZONA