

For further information, contact:
Athia Hardt, 602-861-6800

For Immediate Release
10/22/08
w/photos

Osborn Maledon, P.A. announces new partner, two new associates

The Phoenix law firm of Osborn Maledon, P.A., has announced a new partner and two new associates of the firm.

Ronda Fisk, the new partner, specializes in employment law, commercial litigation, and appeals. Fisk graduated from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law and clerked for then-Arizona Supreme Court Justice Charles Jones. The "Business Journal" recently recognized her in the Class of 2008 "Forty Under 40" business leaders.

The new associates are Kathleen Brody O'Meara and Joseph Roth. O'Meara, whose practice includes litigation, criminal defense, and appeals, also graduated from the University of Arizona College of Law, as well as Yale University. She clerked for Arizona Supreme Court Justice Andrew Hurwitz.

Roth, a litigator, is a graduate of Columbia Law School, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, and the University of Arizona. He clerked for Arizona Supreme Court Justice W. Scott Bales.

Osborn Maledon, P.A. is a Phoenix law firm of 51 attorneys that provides litigation, business and general counsel solutions for its clients.

###