Two Osborn Maledon Attorneys Inducted into Maricopa County Bar Hall of Fame

Two Osborn Maledon, P.A. attorneys—Larry Hammond and Bill Maledon—recently were inducted into the Maricopa County Bar Hall of Fame. Osborn Maledon is the only firm with two active lawyers in the Hall.

“The goal of the Hall of Fame is to honor in perpetuity the remarkable individuals who built the legal profession in this county and who made exceptional contributions to both the justice system and to the community,” said Judge Glenn Davis, Maricopa County Bar Association president.

Hall of Fame members will be honored in a permanent display in the Maricopa County Bar Association building.

Hammond, a criminal defense attorney, earlier this year received the American Judicature Society’s 2008 Justice Award. Maledon, a nationally acclaimed litigator, is a Founding Fellow and Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation and a member of numerous state and federal Bar committees. Both are founding partners of the law firm.

Osborn Maledon, P.A. is a Phoenix law firm of 51 attorneys that provides litigation, business and general counsel solutions for its clients.
